

Ross Trails

Homes from the $500s|

©2022 Schmidt Builders

©2022 Schmidt Builders

©2022 Schmidt Builders

Schmidt Builders welcomes you home to Ross Trails in Ross, Ohio. Located in the desirable Butler County, there's so much to love about the peaceful environment of Ross Trails. With community sidewalks, all underground utilities, rolling hills, and mature trees, this country-like atmosphere was once home to the Girl Scouts of America's Butler County Scout Camp. A special place to call home, Ross Trails offers a vast selection of ranch and two-story homes by Schmidt Builders on 365 acres. With homesites ranging from 3/4 acre to 10-acre estate style homesites, Ross Trails offers a variety of area amenities including convenient access to the highly acclaimed Fernald Nature Preserve.

HOA This community does not have an HOA | School District Ross Local School District

Community Amenities:

- Acres of open space
- Minutes from Fernald Nature Preserve
- Close to shopping, dining, entertainment

Directions:

I-275 to State Route 127 (Colerain Ave. Exit) to State Route 128 (Hamilton Cleves Road) to School Road to Layhigh Road. Ross Trails is located on the left side of Layhigh Road.

Traditions begin here.

Larry Thinner, Realtor | (513) 720 - 9900 | larry.thinner@gmail.com | schmidtbuilders.com
Jaime Thinner-Neumaier, Realtor | (513) 379-1254 | jthinnerneumaier@sibcycline.com

